

Housing Programs

What we provide?	What are the Requirements	How much does it cost?	Who can avail?
Understudies and prepares technical plans, feasibility studies, project profiles and development schemes for the establishment of orderly and acceptable housing programs, including the possible relocation of displaced families; gathers collates and evaluates data and information relative thereto; conduct briefing, seminars and orientation to educate the proposed beneficiaries on the programs under the City Housing Office	Plans, Titles, Maps, Census Data, Project Profile	None	* Underprivileged homeless citizen of Davao City * Low income group with no landholdings * Those included in the List of potential socialized housing beneficiaries thru the conduct of census tagging and interview
Undertakes physical conservation of project areas; resolves conflicts between beneficiaries and other concerned parties on matters directly involving the project area; keeps and maintains documentation of Deed of Sale, Agreements to Sell, Lease Purchases, Memoranda of Agreement and individual records of payment of beneficiaries; serve Notices of Collection or Cancellation of Agreements; due to non-payment of obligations; undertakes on site collection of amortizations and monitors financial obligations	Community Associations registration, payments, individual requirements e.g. 2x2 pictures, cedula, marriage contract, certificate of no landholdings, barangay clearance, voter's affidavit, proof of income, certification from agencies concerned certificate of occupancy, certificate of award	Charges or fees are undertaken by offices concerned	*Those who are displaced by natural and man made calamities * Those who are affected by demolition thru court orders * Those occupants in danger zones, road right of ways, flood prone areas, shorelines, etc * Those who are occupying private and government-owned lands prior to 1992